☛ You do not have to give your name.

☛ You can earn a reward up to $1,000.

Any person, except as restricted below, who contacts the Fraud Stoppers, investigation team and gives information that leads to the arrest or indictment of any person for a crime against Texas Mutual Insurance Company (the "Company") is eligible for a reward of up to $1,000. The following persons are not eligible for the reward: employees or contractors of the Company or members of their immediate families; commissioned law enforcement officers or members of their immediate families; owners, officers, and managers of a Company policyholder (unless the perpetrator is the policyholder, in which case officers and managers, but not owners, are eligible); and the perpetrators of the crime. Under special circumstances, where the purpose of the Fraud Stoppers program may best be served by so doing, the Fraud Stoppers committee may approve a reward where no arrest or indictment is or can be made. The Fraud Stoppers program will pay a maximum reward of $1,000 for each solved crime against the Company that results in an arrest or indictment. There is no minimum reward. The Fraud Stoppers committee, in its sole discretion, will determine the amount of the reward depending on the importance of the information given, as determined by the committee. If there are multiple informants, the committee will divide the reward among the informants in whatever proportions it deems appropriate, in its sole discretion. The committee's decisions are final and not subject to appeal. Informants will remain anonymous. The committee will identify each informant by assigning a code word and code number to the informant at the time of the initial contact.
